

RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

General and Experimental Psychology, LMU Munich
Winter Semester 2011/12

Host: Prof. Hermann J. Müller

Date	Speaker	Title
26 Oct	Patrick Khader LMU Munich	„Neural dynamics underlying the amplification, inhibition, and integration of material-specific long-term memory representations“
2 Nov	Penny Lewis University of Manchester	"Sleep, memory, and gist extraction"
9 Nov	Dirk Vorberg Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster	"A more realistic two-level timing model with reafferent feedback loop"
16 Nov	no colloquium	---
23 Nov	Lorraine Boran Dublin City University	"Executive function training in healthy senior adults"
30 Nov	Gregor Thut University of Glasgow	"Probing the role of brain rhythms in visual attention and perception using TMS and EEG"
7 Dec	Peter Malinowski Liverpool John Moores University	"Mindfulness practice and the cognitive neuroscience of attention"
14 Dec	Gernot Horstmann Universität Bielefeld	"Is there attentional guidance by affective features?"
21 Dec	Hartwig Siebner Copenhagen University	"Combining transcranial magnetic stimulation and brain imaging to study the selection of action"
11 Jan	John-Dylan Haynes Bernstein Center For Computational Neuroscience	"Decoding conscious and unconscious processes in human decision making"
18 Jan	Marc Ernst Universität Bielefeld	"Multisensory Recalibration makes (the) perfect sense"
25 Jan	Clayton Hickey Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam	"Reward drives selection: changing the way we think about attentional control"
1 Feb	Paul Taylor LMU Munich	"Neural bases of perception and attention: combined TMD-ERP studies"
8 Feb	Masud Husain University College London	"Working memory, visual attention and inattention"